1. You are commended for your outstanding performance on the Physical Fitness test.
2. Physical fitness will undoubtedly be a determining factor for an individual's survival in a combat situation, and you have proven yourself to be in excellent physical condition. Your achievement of 278 points on the test brings great credit to yourself, this unit, and the United States Army.
3. Again, I congratulate you on a job well done.
4. A copy of this correspondence will be placed in your Military Personnel Records Jacket.

1. I take this opportunity to acknowledge a job superbly done during the martial-arts clinic in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Amarillo, Texas, 26 April to 6 May 1982.
2. The martial arts team was a valuable asset in assisting the local recruiter to penetrate high schools where Army awareness has been difficult to attain. You demonstrated the martial-art techniques to well over 10,000 students. Your role as a team member exemplified to these students the comradeship that is attained in the Army and your portrayal as a soldier/martial-artist showed them the diversity of Army life. Because of the enthusiasm you projected, several students inquired about Army enlistment and benefits.
3. I look forward to your return on a future martial-arts tour.
4. A copy of this correspondence will be placed in your official military personnel records.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Thomas J. Davis", is positioned above the typed name.

TO: Specialist Four Danny J. Zaino, 262-89-1716

1. It is a pleasure to forward the complimentary remarks of Lieutenant Colonel Thomas J. Davis, Commander, HQ USA Oklahoma City District Recruiting Command, for the support you provided during their recent recruiting campaign.
2. As a conscientious member of the martial arts team, you provided a first hand professional experience in informing the high school students of the advantages and benefits that the Army has to offer. Due to your expert knowledge of the Army, the recruiting campaign was a success. Please accept my personal thanks and appreciation for a job well done.
